What's New

As of April 8, 2014

Here's a quick update of what's new from New Road Map Foundation, host of FinancialIntegrity.org and the Simple Living Forum. These community-created websites are the "go-to" places for people who are integrating financial integrity into their lives by aligning their financial lifestyles with their personal values and goals.

On The Wiki

Resources: Meshing.it

Mesh companies create, share and use social media, wireless networks, and data crunched from every available source to provide people with goods and services at the exact moment they need them, without the burden and expense of owning them outright. At least that's the idea behind meshing.it. A much needed resource.

What is American Culture Really?

Most of our conversations are based on the values and finances within the US, but the community reaches around the world - and therefore, so do the insights. American culture is sometimes best seen from the outside.

Question of the Month

This month's question is a two parter about Financial Independence (FI):

Q1: How long have you been working on FI?

and

Q2: Are you FI?

A simple, yet powerful, and useful question. It is also deeply personal so we'll collect them, delete the names, and report the results next month. Email us your answers.
